About This Game

Jump! Jump! Jump!

Jump! Jump! Jump! is a score based platformer game.

The purpose of the game is to escape from the flooding water coming from under and try to reach the best score.
In the game, except water, there is two obstacles: moving barriers that are coming from left and right sides of screen and you should jump before the barriers are closing the path. Those gates move with different speed, and there is different types of closing gates.. its getting complex!

The main character of the game is a cube with jelly physics. Try not to get stuck on the closing gate! You can collect coins and unlock new characters form.

this game is not for everyone: it required dextery, concentration, reflexes... and the need to beat the highest score!
